MACOMB MENTIONINGS.

(Special Correspondence.)

No rain yet, the corn is suffering in this section

Dr. J. A. Fuson of Mansfield was here on business Tuesday.

E. B. Garner of Hartville was here Tuesday on business.

John Hitchcock of Norwood plead guilty to the charge of disturbing the peace at the home of Jack Soursoyes a week ago.

Jess Lakes says there is nothing to the mill business; he says there is more in pitching ball.

Quite a few boys and girls from Macomb were at Ashy Sunday night; they all report a good time. Jess Baker and wife spent Sunday with W. H. Royal's.

Paul McCallister has returned from Prairie Hollow where he has been employed by J. D. Reynolds for the past month.

John Woody seems to be very much interested at Perry Dakes, as one of Mr. Dakes nieces, Miss Ethel Groves, is visiting there. O! well he isn't bothered with the Shorts any more.

Fred Merton Miss Bessie Short, John Short and Miss Birdie Babb visited W. R. Short's of Prairie Hollow Sunday

We had a light shower at Macomb Tuesday.

Everyone seemed to have a good time at the ice cream social Friday night

Preaching at the Macomb Methodist Episcopal church the second and fourth Sundays each month. Sunday school every Sunday

Preaching at the Baptist church every first Saturday at 11 a. m. and at 7 p. m. and Sunday 11 a. m. by Rev. G. Chadwell, pastor. Everybody invited.

Uncle Syra Odle will conduct his annual all-day singing at the Baptist church at Macomb the first Sunday in September. Everybody bring all of their old Christian Harmony song books. Dinner on the grounds. Everybody come and bring your baskets full and let us have a real old-fashioned singing

Business Change

W. C. Coday has sold the Mansfield Bottling Works to B. F. and Lester Stone, who takes charge tomorrow and will conduct the business under the firm name of Stone Bros. Mr. Coday has been having a splendid trade and, while regretting to see him retire from the business, we wish success to the new proprietors, who are energetic, hustling young business men.
